University of Idaho is hosting Avanza Virtually this year Open to all grades!*

November 17, 18 and 19 from 6 - 8 p.m. MT.

It is our specialty event for Hispanic/Latinx high school seniors and their families. Avanza is a great opportunity for Hispanic/Latinx seniors to discover how U of I will help them achieve their goals. They'll meet our staff and alumni, learn about the College Assistance Migrant Program (CAMP), and get one-on-one help with their admission application and FAFSA before our December 1 priority date (the early consideration date for our diversity scholarships). All services at Avanza for parents and students are offered in Spanish and English.

Students who attend Avanza will be interviewed for a chance to win one of twenty $500 scholarships provided by Idaho Central Credit Union.

Students can register for the event at www.uidaho.edu/avanza-events

Montana State University's first MSU Saturday!

Montana State University in Bozeman will be hosting MSU SATURDAY events this year.

This is your chance to find out what MSU is all about. MSU Saturday is a prospective student and family preview day hosted by the Office of Admissions where prospective students and their family members can come and learn about the MSU campus, living and dining on campus, student life, and scholarships.

For further information on the MSU Saturday program, or to register online, please click here.

Sign up early! You must register in advance for this event in order to participate - no walk-on registrations will be allowed.

If you are unable to make this visit day, please consider our other MSU Saturday dates on October 17, 2020, October 24, 2020, and November 7, 2020.

The Office of Admissions is happy to offer comprehensive virtual visit opportunities and open its doors for personalized campus visits all year long.
